WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., August, 1868. GENERAL:-Full of solicitude for he future of our country, I come with my heart in my hand to learn the condition, wishes and intentions of the people of the Southern States, and especially to ascertain the sentiments of that brave, energetic and self sacrificing class of men, who, after sustaining the Confederacy for four years, laid down their arms and swore allegiance to the Government of the United States, whose trusted and beloved leader you have been. I see that interpreting State rights to conflict with National unity has produced a violent reaction against them, which is drifting us toward consolidation; and also that so great a country as ours, even now, is certain to be, tend to local details, or go further and It is plain to us at the West and North that the continuance of semi vember 1st, 1867, it had been steadily last three years in ten States of our Union, largely increases the danger expenditures; diminishes our producof our political and financial stabili-
